Security Information

25X1A6a the contractor at [REDACTED] is apparently trying to charge us excessive administra-25X1C4c tive costs due to the fact that [REDACTED] is finishing out their contract on 30 June and 25X1A6a our eight houses will be the only remaining construction for the contractor at 25X1C4c [REDACTED] After much discussion it was recommended and decided that [REDACTED] 25X1C4c Mr. [REDACTED] will then negotiate with 25X1A9a the present contractor and with [REDACTED] contractors, through the Chief of Logistics, FE, to obtain the lowest price for finishing the 25X1A6a houses. The Chief Engineer of [REDACTED] stated that they do not object to a 30-to-60-FOIAb3b1 day delay in the completion of the remaining eight houses if we can thereby obtain the best price for the construction.
